The license is valid for one year from the date of issuance and must be renewed annually for each dog. Such license fee shall be paid within thirty days after moving into the City, or within thirty days after acquiring ownership of the dog. If such license fee is not paid within the above mentioned thirty days, or if the annual license has expired, a penalty of Twenty Dollars shall be added to such fee and collected therewith.

A new metal license tag is issued with the pet's first license. The metal tag will remain with the pet permanently while the license must be renewed annually. A replacement for the initial lifetime tag will be $5. Only one tag can be active at one time. Requests for multiple tags for the same animal cannot be fulfilled.

Qualified pet owners 62 & over with an altered pet may receive 1 free license per home. Letter from City is required.
